

Bill Matthias

“I build synthesizers because it’s such a fun thing to do. I’m not convinced that they’re going to take over the world. I enjoy it from a technological sense combined with the gratification of seeing something I build being used musically by a musician.”