The sound that made synthesis great, now available at a price that makes synthesis easy. The Matrix-1000 lets you choose from 1,000 of the best analog sounds instantly—no more changing cartridges or loading from cassette. And its six voices have been designed to give you the famous Oberheim sound at a fraction of the price of other synths.

Matrix-1000—1000 sounds instantly.

With its unique "Group Mode" you can hook up to six Matrix-1000's together for a 36 voice instrument, or hook one up to a Matrix 6 or 6R for 12 voices with true rotate and reassign. And of course, analog has always been considered the perfect compliment for digital instruments. The Matrix-1000 adds the warmth of the professional Oberheim sound to any digital set-up. It comes with 800 pre-programmed sounds by some of the world's best programmers in ROM and an additional 200 sounds in user loadable RAM and all of its sounds and MIDI formats are Matrix-6 compatible so it can be used with any Matrix-6 patch librarian or editor.
